May Hot Dog Dinners: These are great opportunities to put our group out in front of lots of people and show our appreciation for the parish's support of all of our activities. These are great places to recruit and to get new members active. If you know a new member or recruit bring them along!

Christ of the Plains Update

At the Convention, they announced that they have decided to cancel this project. The project was not receiving enough financial support. The announced that all donations will be being returned

State Convention: If I tried to thank everyone for the help I would no doubt miss many people. We were efficient, prepared, and really made a great impression on lots of Brother Knights. If you get a moment, congratulate Paul Shearrer on his selection as a delegate to the Supreme Convention in Toronto in August. Thanks Paul and Dean for your guidance and for a JOB WELL DONE!
